Mercury
"Larson's greatest strength is in artfully depicting the small but telling moments of adolescence. Beautiful black-and-white interior illustrations, touches of magical realism and a spot-on ear for teen dialogue make this a great pick for tweens and young teens."
-Publishers Weekly Children's Bookshelf

Chiggers
"Hope Larson shows off the deft storytelling and inventive layouts that made her a web-comics sensation."
-Gene Yang, Printz Award-winning creator of American Born Chinese

Gray Horses
"Larson's style is especially pleasing for the way she represented a plethora of normally unseen phenomena, such as sound, light, wind, thoughts. She uses traditional comics icons in singular ways that are evocative and effective."
-Medinkbeard

 has your budget in mind.

Pricing is based on a per-send basis. We start email sends at 100. There is a small delivery fee that is not per recipient.

We also offer volume discounts. The more recipients you have on your list, the lower the cost per recipient, and the more sends you do per month, the lower the delivery fee per send.

"ContactSolved's automated emails for birthdays and joining our programs are a great way to stay in front of our customers. What a great system!"

-Keney Mullis, Little Miss Muffin

custom-designed templates

Sure, every email program offers templates you can use. But that just means your email looks like every other email out there, easily lost in the shuffle. You don't want all the time building your business just to have your emails lost in the shuffle, do you? We don't think so.

Our custom built templates are just that - custom built. For $100. Reflecting your design, your brand, your message. Ready for you to use how you want, when you want. The way it should be.

Custom template designs are priced on-request, and start at $400.00.
